The Departure of Abraham, by Jozsef Molnar, 1850
Typical of a late Romanticist view of Abram/Abraham as a strong and virtuous character setting out on a pure and noble quest.

Welcome and Announcements

Silent Prayer

Call to Worship: (adapted from Psalm 17)

L: Hear me, Lord. Pay attention to my cry! Listen to my prayer! It's spoken by lips that don't lie!

P: My justice comes from you. Let your eyes see what is right!

L: You have examined by heart, testing me at night. You've looked me over closely and found me oppressed.

P: My steps are set firmly on your paths, and my feet haven't slipped.

L: I cry out to you. Tilt your ears toward me and listen to what I'm saying!

P: Manifest your faithful love in amazing ways, because you are the one who saves those who take refuge in you, saving them from their attackers by your strong hand.
